He presented patients at teaching and business ward rounds and instructed junior doctors. His hours of work were 96 per week when he had a week-end off and 106 hours a week when he did not.

22	St. Mary's Hospital Intern in Pediatrics, General Surgery, Internal Medicine, and Obstetrics & Gynecology.	1298 St Mark's Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, NY 11213, USA	June 1966 to June 1967
In 1965, at the United States Embassy in Lagos, Dr. Akwuba sat for the examination given by the Educational Council for Foreign Medical Graduates (ECFMG), an organization based in Chicago, Illinois, USA. The examination is given to medical graduates from other countries, who want to work or train in the United States, in order to ascertain the quality of the degrees obtained by such doctors. He passed the examination easily and was immediately offered employment and training by St. Mary's Hospital, in Brooklyn, New York, while he was completing his house-officer requirements, in Lagos, for registration with the Nigeria Medical Council. St. Mary's Hospital sent him a one-way ticket on Pan American World Airways. He arrived in New York City on June 20, 1966. About two days after his arrival, at the request of the hospital, Dr. Akwuba began work as an extern in Obstetrics and Gynecology, well before the official start of his formal employment and training program, which begins, each year, on July 1. On July 1, 1966, he began the formal employment and training as a Rotating Intern in Pediatrics, General Surgery, Internal Medicine, and Obstetrics & Gynecology. Work included the examination, admission, and treatment of patients. Treatment included specialized investigative procedures and assisting in surgical operations on all parts of the body. Hospital treatment of patients was followed by out-patient care. He presented patients at teaching and business ward rounds. His hours of work were 96 per week when he had a week-end off and 116 hours a week when he did not.
23	Holiday Magic, Inc. General Distributor.	Wilshire Boulevard, San Rafael, California, USA	1969 to 1973
Dr. Akwuba began as an independent Master Distributor for the Cosmetics House and rose to the top independent distributor's position of General Distributor. He built and managed the largest distributorship ever built by a part-time distributor and was the only part-time distributor to win all the major awards for monthly business volume, awards that are won by only a very tiny fraction of the most successful full-time distributors. He did all of this part-time, whenever he was not busy at the university hospital where he was a full-time Resident in Neurosurgery. He was soon earning up to ten times more from this part-time business than he was earning from his full-time work at the hospital. He maintained an office (as Chenax Majesty, Inc.), with a full-time employee, at 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City. In early 1973, Dr. Akwuba concluded that too many distributors were not making money and were likely to lose their investments. Concerned, he

	developed a solution and presented it to Holiday Magic, Inc. When Holiday Magic chose NOT to adopt the solution, Dr. Akwuba terminated his business with the company. A few years later, Mr. Bill Patrick, Holiday Magic's founder and owner, died when a small plane he was flying crashed. A few months later, Holiday Magic went out of business.
24	Agricultural Authentics, Inc. Founder & Chief Executive Officer.	Doctors' Residence, Jewish Hospital Center of Brooklyn, Brooklyn, New York, NY 11213, USA	1967 to 1969
	Dr. Akwuba imported African cultural items, such as wooden combs and works of art, and sold them through stores in different parts of New York City, on "consignment basis". He also had African garments made, under his label, by contractors in New York City and he sold them, on the same "consignment basis", in stores throughout the City of New York. He operated the business part-time, whenever he was not on duty at the hospital.
25	Federal Government of Nigeria, Ministry of Works. Assistant Executive Officer.	Ministry of Works, Federal Secretariat, Lagos, Nigeria	1960 - 1962 (Jun to Sep only)
	Akwuba was employed as an Assistant Executive Officer during two summer vacations from the University. His work included compiling and checking the list of employees of the Ministry of Works as the Civil Service Employees Unions worked to recruit them into unions. This was low-level clerical work, created by the supportive Federal Government to provide easy work and excellent vacation income, during their years of training, for future leaders.
26	West African Examinations Council. Temporary Clerk.	West African Examinations Council, Yaba, Lagos, Nigeria	June 1959 to Sep. 1959
	Akwuba was employed as a temporary clerk during his first summer vacation from the University. His work included registration of incoming mail and checking of lists of candidates for examinations.
27	CMS Central School. Ex-Secondary School Teacher.	CMS Central School, Iseke, Anambra State, Nigeria	Jan. 1958 to Aug. 1958

University College, Ibadan, was a statutory part of the University of London, England. He was one of 10 in Nigeria who passed the competitive examination when the population was 80 million, and there was no age limit for candidates. Akwuba competed at the examination with some of his high school science teachers (who, incidentally, failed to pass!)

26. Proof That Dr. Akwuba Is “The Teacher” Described In Ancient Written Prophecies

The Teacher is the person through whom, at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, September 8, 1990, the Guide arrived on Planet Earth. The Guide arrived equipped with 22 Major Items known as the Teachings of the Guide. The physical event occurred on the exact date, and at the location, predicted in written prophecies dating back more than 40,000 years.

The Guide is the multi-talented solver of difficult problems. As an example, the Guide is the “He” in Isaiah’s prophecy in the Old Testament of the Bible in which the prophet predicted a new and successful conflict resolver and peacemaker. The prophet said in Isaiah Chapter 2, verse 4: “He will judge between the nations and will settle disputes for many peoples. They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore”.

And where is the Guide now? He is on Planet Earth, and has been since his arrival. In his Epistle to King Henri II of France in 1558, Nostradamus, Europe’s greatest prophet, specified the month and place of his arrival. The Guide is “the expected one” in many cultures and traditions.

Why is the Guide here? The Guide is here to lead humankind to peace and prosperity, justice and equity, cooperation and unity. He arrived equipped with a Package of Knowledge, which includes the 22 Major Items, known as “the Teachings of the Guide”. He has permitted the Teacher unique access to the 22 Major Items.

The Guide’s conflict resolution tool is the nonviolent Chenax Conflict Resolution System.

The Guide, whose official title is “The Morning Star”, is not a human person. He is referred to as “The Guide known as the Morning Star”.

THE POSITIVE IDENTIFICATION

According to written prophecy, several events will positively identify the only person who is the Teacher. These include:

1. The Teacher’s personal name appears in ancient written prophecy, in which his role is clearly described.
2. The Teacher’s Great Race is identified in writing by Nostradamus.
3. Astonishingly, the Teacher is supposed to be imprisoned more than 2 times by a powerful government, and the duration of the imprisonment was predicted in a written prophecy older than 1,600 years. Dr. Akwuba has, in fact, been unlawfully imprisoned 3 times by the Government of the United States, on trumped-up charges and false evidence fabricated by Agents of the US government. The illegal imprisonments began on St. Valentine’s Day, February 14, 1996. The same government has tortured Dr. Akwuba more than 30 times.
4. Dr. Akwuba discovered the imprisonment prophecy only during his second imprisonment. He also discovered that another man from the wrong Great Race had changed his name to “Osho” and was claiming to be “the expected one”, i.e. the Guide. Dr. Akwuba’s given name is “Uchenna”, which, as is usual, has a meaning in Igbo, the language of his Nation. Uchenna literally means “The Will of the Father”; it really means “The Will of God” or “The Word of God”.
